Dallastown Youth Basketball

Program Information

The Winter season allows players from grades K-10 to participate in the Dallastown Youth Basketball Organization (DYBO). DYBO offers Travel (competing against other quality teams from York and Eastern Adams county), York County Basketball Athletic League and Skill Builders (entry level program that teaches fundamentals of the game). All players are given both physical and mental instructions in the fundamental skills and rules of the game of basketball, according to their age and abilities.

Practice Start Dates:
Travel teams end of October.
York County Basketball Athletic League teams middle of November.

Games
Weekends from December through February for Travel

Weekends with a few weeknight games through February for York County Athletic Association

Skill Builder Program runs from December through January on Saturdays and Sundays.
